HTI Announces Free One-Day Career Transition Seminars for Displaced Aloha Airlines Workers

Honolulu, Hawai`i 5/15/08 - Hawaii Technology Institute is offering three (3) one-day Career Transition Seminars to displaced Aloha Airlines workers – at NO COST to participants. Each day on Monday June 9, Tuesday, June 10 and Thursday, June 12, 2008, the Institute will open its doors to the first 25 displaced Aloha Airlines employees who wish to participate in training in the areas of information and computer literacy as well as career transition and job readiness.

The one-day seminars will begin at 8:00 a.m. and end at 5:00 p.m. All seminars take place on site at Hawai`i Technology Institute, located at 629 Pohukaina Street in Kaka`ako, Honolulu. "For HTI, this is simply a random act of kindness for our family and friends from Aloha Airlines who have served us so well for so long," explains La Vonne Sexton, HTI's Coordinator of Special Projects and a graduate of the Institute who has been on staff for the past 15 years.

HTI President / CEO, Naomi Digitaki, adds, "It is an honor for HTI to give back and lend a helping hand and show our support. It is, indeed, the right thing to do in recognition of the years of commitment, dedication and selfless service that these displaced workers have, individually and collectively, given to their respective communities!"

For additional information on the Career Transition seminars for Aloha Airline workers, contact La Vonne Sexton at 522.2700 or visit www.hti.edu.
